

Qur'an syllabus

- Where possible students will be divided into groups of ability to manage behaviour and smooth progress.
- All students will be assessed before entering a level or teacher will place a child in a particular level from his/ her knowledge of the student's ability.
- As the student progresses and passes the test connected to each level they will move up to the next level – this can take place in between term times.
- Classes with more than average number of students may require a volunteer upon request of teacher or will be put into classes with less number of students.
- Students learning from surah Nas – 'Ala will be provided with CD with recitation of Sheikh Mishary Rashid Al Efasy and students repeating after him to aid learning in class and at home with clear reading with tajweed.
- Assessment will be continuous and daily progress will be noted in the child's record folder.
- Student success is largely dependent on parental help and involvement. Parents are expected to take an active involvement in their child's learning.
